So, I'm sitting here in my beachfront condo on the Gulf coast of Florida.

I am thinking to myself, why would anyone want to travel to Florida? You can go anywhere in the United States or the World for that matter. So, why would you want to travel to one of the top destinations in the world?

Here's why...

Florida has everything you could want in a vacation. That is why we venture there quite often and also have devoted an entire website about it.

What do I mean? Well, again I am sitting there writing this down, overlooking the Gulf. The smell of the sea, the breeze penetrating my every pore, the beauty and mystery it brings, and the peace you'll feel will overcome you immediately.

If you live a hectic schedule and have a tough time relaxing, this will never be a problem when you are sitting beachfront. It all reminded me of a great quote from the movie, Forrest Gump, "You don't know where the earth ends and heaven begins."

Besides the ocean, Florida offers an array of activities that you will ultimately enjoy...

For example, walk the breathtaking beaches, drive up and down the coast, or enjoy water activities like boating, fishing, skiing, windsailing, snorkeling and so forth. You can also play golf on many of the top courses in the country. What about finding romance (we saw a gorgeous beach wedding), heading to theme parks and Orlando, spend tons of money shopping, or take in the most unbelievable sunsets and views that you've ever seen.

I could go on and on, but the point is that Florida offers everything you could want! Dreams, desires, plenty to do or not do, options, flexibility, great food, fun and sun, anytime of the year. Whether you are on a budget or not, you get all this and more!!!
